

Online Court

Land and Environment Court

What is the NSW Online Court?

The Online Court is a service that may be used for all civil matters listed in the Land and Environment Court. It allows you to make the following requests:

- For an adjournment of or future listing for the following:
 - Aboriginal Land Claims List
 - Class 3, 4 or 8 Directions Hearing
 - Land Valuation and Compensation List
 - Registrar Directions Hearing
 - Return of Subpoena
 - Tree Directions Conference
- For a listing for the following:
 - Case Management Conference
 - Costs Hearing
 - Hearing
 - Mediation
 - Notice to Produce List
 - Online court – Request required
 - S34 Conciliation Conference
 - S34AA Conciliation and Hearing
 - S41 Conciliation and Hearing
- Other orders, including applications to vary the timetable or for a slip rule amendment.

How are Online Court matters managed?

When parties, solicitors (or their delegates) or barristers have a matter listed in the Land and Environment Court, they will automatically be able to use the Online Court to make a request.

The Decision Maker will review requests made through Online Court and make orders. The recording of an order in Online Court can result in:

- the vacation of the next listing, and the scheduling of a new listing date
- recording of the orders you sought, or the Decision Maker's preferred orders

Who can use the Online Court?

The Online Court is available to parties or their legal representatives who are registered in the Online Registry and have matters with a future listing date in the Land and Environment Court.

Notification

Solicitors on the record for all parties will be notified by email when:

- A request is submitted via the Online Court
- A response to an Online Court request is made (consent or counter a request)
- The Decision Maker has responded to a request and made an order

Messaging

At any time during Online Court:

- Legal representatives and unrepresented parties may send a message to the Decision Maker
- The Decision Maker may send messages to legal representatives and parties
- Messages will be visible to all parties in the Online Court Record

Online Court records

All actions including requests, consents, counter requests, reasons, messages, documents, commentary and orders made in Online Court will be recorded in the Online Court Record and will be visible to all parties. You can request a free transcript of the Online Court record by emailing onlineregistry_support@agd.nsw.gov.au. If the request is made by someone who is not directly involved in the case, the transcript will only be distributed once the Registrar has approved its release.

Any feedback or technical issues should be sent to onlineregistry_support@agd.nsw.gov.au

Cut off times

The cut-off time for the Online Court is

12:00pm the day before the in-person or online listing date

To avoid attending in person, we recommend all matters are responded to promptly in advance of this deadline in the Online Court. You should always check your dashboard by no later than the day before your next listing for recent activity.
